FOOTNOTES:

- 1 The subject product is identical in composition to Dantobrom (EPA Reg. No. 6836-117) and Dantobrom TBS (EPA Reg. No. 6836-255). Therefore, the physical and chemical characteristics data on file for these two registered products is being used to support the registration of the subject product.
- 2 These data are not required under 40 CFR §158.190 because the subject end-use product is a solid at room temperature.
- 3 These data are not required under 40 CFR §158.190 because the subject end-use product does not contain any combustible liquids.
- 4 These data are not required under 40 CFR §158.190 because the subject end-use product is not explosive nor does it contain any potentially explosive components.
- 5 These data are not required under 40 CFR §158.190 because the subject end-use product is a solid.
- 6 These data are not required under 40 CFR §158.190 because the subject end-use product is a solid; i.e., it is not an emulsifiable liquid intended to be diluted with petroleum solvents.
- 7 These data are not required under 40 CFR §158.190 because the subject end-use product is a solid; i.e., it is not a liquid intended to be used around electrical equipment.
- 8 These data are not required for end-use products under 40 CFR §158.190. Data for the TGAI and PAI should already be on file with the Agency for the active ingredients in question.
